

BMJ Learning

Treat your patients with confidence

How to access BMJ Learning via Access code

Getting started with BMJ Learning is quick and easy.
Just follow the simple steps below:

First time users:

1. Go to learning.bmj.com and click 'Log in'.
2. Select the button 'Use Access Code'. You will then be taken to My Account where you can enter your personal details. We'll personalise the BMJ Learning site with the details that you give us. Make sure to enter your access/voucher code during the registration process.
3. Once complete you can return to the site to view your personal homepage and start accessing modules.

Existing users:

1. Go to learning.bmj.com and click 'Log in'.
2. Enter the memorable username and password you chose during your initial registration process.
3. Once signed in, select 'My Account' at the top of the page and click 'Use access code'. Enter your access code and complete the registration process.

The next time you visit BMJ Learning, you will just need to select 'Log in' and enter your BMJ Learning username and password.

If you would like further support please email support@bmj.com or contact your institution.

learning.bmj.com