INFLUENCE

Tan Dhesi Shadow Minister (Transport) mentioned The BMJ in a House of Commons debate Covid-19: PPE Procurement 24 November 2022: "Given that The BMJ estimates that the Government have written off approximately £10 billion in unusable, undelivered or shoddy PPE, will the Minister take the opportunity to apologise to bereaved families for the amazing lack of integrity at the heart of the whole process?"

Peter Bottomley Father of the House of Commons mentioned The BMJ in a Westminster Hall discussion Infected Blood Inquiry and Compensation Framework 24 November 2022: "I recommend the medical classics review published in the BMJ 2011;342;d2078—I apologise for giving a reference—where Parita Mukta gives a retrospective review of that work. Richard Titmuss considered how the altruism of the gift of blood—one person the donor and one the receiver, each not knowing the other but knowing how the system worked—did an immense amount of good."
