Rachael Hamilton Conservative mentioned The BMJ in a Scottish Parliament debate Gender Recognition Reform \(Scotland\) Bill: Stage 3 20 Dec 2022: "An article in The BMJ was drawn to my attention, which says that, currently, 7 per cent of people who apply for a GRC have their application turned down. Jamie Greene talked about medical intervention and the diagnosis of gender dysphoria, which is done by a doctor. Does he believe that the Scottish Government must address the issue of people who were previously refused a GRC by a doctor who will now be able to obtain a GRC through a self-ID system in Scotland?"

Social Media

The article in Journal of Medical Ethics on vaccine mandates for students was the highest scoring output on Altmetric, having been mentioned 18,297 on Twitter in the past week.

The press released research on dunking biscuits in tea, published in The BMJ's Christmas issue also scored highly on Altmetric, mentioned 1,175 times on social media and in the news in the past week.

The LinkedIn post promoting press released research in The BMJ's Christmas issue on walking "teabag style" performed well, generating 107 engagements.
